University of Chicago partners with TSSC

NEW DELHI: The University of Chicago (UChicago), led by the Harris School of Public Policy and its Tata Center for Development, today sealed a historic Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Telecom Sector Skill Council of India (TSSC) in the presence of senior Government of India Minister P.P Chaudhary (Minister of State for Law & Justice, Electronics and Information Technology).

The partnership was inaugurated with an engaging dialogue on "Building India 2030 with Emerging Global Technologies" at the University of Chicago Center in New Delhi, witnessing participation from 'who's-who' of the industry, academia and government of India.
